2024 FOOD SERIES

The commencement of the Boyne Valley Food Series in 2013 signalled a new milestone in the delivery of culinary food experiences to locals and visitors alike. Our award-winning Food Series is a collaboration of local chefs, artisan producers and food enthusiasts who work together to create a calendar of unique, one-off, producer-led events which celebrate our land, our heritage, our people and of course, our produce!

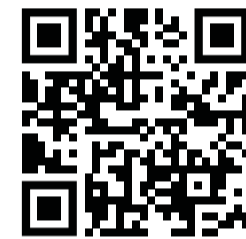

Each year the Boyne Food Series brings the most exceptional choice of foodie experiences that will immerse you in the food & drink culture of the Boyne Valley. From farm tours to long table suppers, culinary cruises, food festivals, distillery tours, farmers markets and apple blossom walks, our Food Series has it all and there is something for all the family to enjoy! The Samhain Festival is one of the penultimate events in the BVFS Calendar which takes place in November and is a celebration of Irish food & culture.

The Boyne Valley region continues to be recognised as one of Ireland's leading food tourism destinations and as the birthplace of Ireland's Ancient East, and once the seat of the High Kings of Ireland, the Boyne Valley still brings royal food and drink experiences fit for any King or Queen.

FOOD EXPERIENCES

Discover the flavours of the Boyne Valley through our many Food Experiences

Alright Pumpkin 1

The Alright Pumpkin patch has been growing pumpkins since 2013. They started after they saw their first field of pumpkins, while working on farms as a harvester in America. They thought they looked so cool and colourful in the fields and wanted to bring some of those bright colours back to Ireland. It also helped that the area they live in, Fordstown, Co. Meath has very close ties to the origins of Halloween!

CURRENTLY CLOSED UNTIL OCTOBER 2024
